

Photo: Władysław Siemaszko/commons.wikimedia.org

362. UPA's Ways of Murdering Poles

In February 1943, the UPA ( Ukrainian Insurgent Army) began the mass extermination of the Polish population living in Volhynia. As a result of the "Volhynian Massacre," 50,000-60,000 Poles and approximately 2,500 Ukrainians died. Below, we present 362 methods of torture and murder of Polish citizens used by the UPA and the Ukrainian population collaborating with it.

1. Driving a large, thick nail into the skull of the head.
2. Removing the hair from the head along with the skin (scalping).
3. Inflicting a blow on the skull with the butt of an axe.
4. A blow to the forehead with the butt of an axe.
5. Carving of an "eagle" on the forehead.
6. Sticking a bayonet into the temple of the head.
7. Gouging out one eye.
8. Selecting both eyes.
9. Cutting off the nose.
10. Cutting off one ear.
11. Cutting off both ears.

12. Piercing one ear with a sharpened thick wire through the other ear.
13. Lip trimming.
14. Tongue cutting.
15. Roasting alive in a bread oven.
16. Slitting the throat and pulling the tongue out through the hole.
17. Slitting the throat and stuffing a rag into the hole.
18. Knocking out teeth.
19. Jaw breaking.
20. Tearing your lips from ear to ear.
21. Gagging the mouth with tow when transporting victims who are still alive.
22. Cutting the neck with a knife or sickle.
23. A blow to the neck with an axe.
24. Vertical chopping of the head with an axe.
25. Turning your head backward.
26. Pulping the head by placing the head in screw clamps.
27. Beheading with a sickle.
28. Cutting off a head with a scythe.
29. Chopping off the head with an axe.
30. Inflicting stab wounds to the head.
31. Cutting and removing narrow strips of skin from the back.
32. Inflicting other cut wounds on the back.
33. Stabbing someone in the back with a bayonet.
34. Fracture of the rib bones of the chest.
35. Inflicting a blow with a knife or bayonet to the heart or the area around the heart.
36. Inflicting stab wounds in the chest with a knife or bayonet.
37. Cutting off women's breasts with a sickle.
38. Cutting off women's breasts and sprinkling salt on the wounds.
39. Cutting off the genitals of male victims with a sickle.
40. Cutting the torso in half with a carpenter's saw.
41. Inflicting stab wounds to the abdomen with a knife or bayonet.
42. Piercing a pregnant woman's belly with a bayonet.
43. Cutting open the abdomen and pulling out the intestines in adults.
44. Cutting open the abdomen of a woman in advanced pregnancy and replacing the fetus with, for example, a live cat and sewing up the abdomen.
45. Cutting open the belly and pouring boiling water inside.
46. Cutting open the belly, putting stones inside it and throwing it into the river.
47. Cutting open the belly of pregnant women and throwing broken glass into it.
48. Ripping out the veins from the armpit to the feet.
49. Inserted into the vagina – the vagina of a red-hot iron.
50. Inserting pine cones into the vagina from the top side.
51. Inserting a sharpened pin into the vagina and pushing it all the way down the throat, all the way through.
52. Cutting open the front of a woman's torso with a gardening knife, from the vagina to the neck, and leaving the insides exposed.
53. Hanging victims by their entrails.
54. Putting a glass bottle into your vagina and breaking it.
55. Putting a glass bottle in your anus and breaking it.
56. Cutting open the belly and pouring in food for hungry pigs, the so-called grit, which they tore out along with the intestines and other entrails.
57. Chopping off with an axe with one hand.

58. Chopping off both hands with an axe.
59. Piercing your hand with a knife.
60. Cutting off fingers with a knife.
61. Cutting off hands.
62. Burning the palm of your hand on a hot coal stove top.
63. Chopping off the heel.
64. Chopping off the foot above the heel bone.
65. Breaking the bones of the hands in several places with a blunt instrument.
66. Breaking leg bones in several places with a blunt instrument.
67. Cutting a body in half with a carpenter's saw, covered on both sides with boards.
68. Cutting the body in half with a special wooden saw.
69. Sawing off both legs.
70. Sprinkling hot coals on bound legs.
71. Nailing your hands into the table and your feet into the floor.
72. Nailing hands and feet to the cross in church.
73. Blows to the back of the head with an axe, with victims previously placed face down on the floor.
74. Inflicting blows with an axe on the entire torso.
75. Chopping the body into pieces with an axe.
76. Live breaking of leg and arm bones in the so-called treadmill.
77. Nailing the tongue of a small child to the table with a knife and then hanging on it.
78. Cutting a child into pieces with a knife and scattering them around.
79. Ripping open children's bellies.
80. Nailing a small child to a table with a bayonet.
81. Hanging a male child by his genitals from a doorknob.
82. Breaking the joints of a child's legs.
83. Breaking the joints of a child's hands.
84. Suffocating a child by throwing various rags over it.
85. Throwing small children alive into deep wells.
86. Throwing a child into the flames of a burning building.
87. Breaking a baby's head by taking it by the legs and hitting it against a wall or stove.
88. Hanging a monk by his feet under the pulpit in a church.
89. Impaling a child.
90. Hanging a woman upside down from a tree and tormenting her by cutting off her breasts and tongue, cutting open her stomach and removing her eyes, and cutting off pieces of her body with knives.
91. Nailing a small child to the door.
92. Hanging from a tree upside down.
93. Hanging upside down on a tree.
94. Hanging one's head upside down on a tree and singeing it from below with the fire of a fire lit under the head.
95. Throwing down a rock.
96. Drowning in the river.
97. Drowning by throwing into a deep well.
98. Drowning in a well and throwing stones on the victim.
99. Stabbing someone with a pitchfork and then roasting the body parts on a fire.
100. Throwing an adult into the flames of a bonfire in a forest clearing, around which Ukrainian girls sang and danced to the sounds of harmonies.
101. Driving a sharpened wheel through the belly and securing it in the ground.
102. Tying a man to a tree and shooting at him like a target.

103. Driving naked or in underwear in the cold.
104. Strangulation by twisting with a soapy rope suspended from a Shiite rope called a lariat.
105. Dragging a body through the street with a rope tied around the neck.
106. Tying a woman's legs to two trees and her arms above her head and cutting her belly open from the crotch to the breasts.
107. Tearing apart the torso with chains.
108. Dragging along the ground tied to a horse-drawn vehicle.
109. Dragging a mother with three children along the street, tied to a horse-drawn cart in such a way that one of the mother's legs was chained to the cart, one of the oldest child's legs was chained to the mother's other leg, the younger child's leg was chained to the oldest child's other leg, and the youngest child's leg was chained to the younger child's other leg.
110. Piercing the torso through with a rifle barrel.
111. Squeezing the victim with barbed wire.
112. Squeezing two victims together with barbed wire.
113. Squeezing more victims together with barbed wire.
114. Periodically constricting the torso with barbed wire and dousing the victim with cold water every few hours to regain consciousness and experience pain and suffering.
115. Burying the victim in the ground standing up to the neck and leaving him in that state.
116. Burying alive in the ground up to the neck and then cutting off the head with a scythe.
117. Torso being torn in half by horses.
118. Tearing the body in half by tying the victim to two bent trees and then releasing them.
119. Throwing adults into the flames of a burning building.
120. Setting fire to a victim previously doused with kerosene.
121. Covering the sacrifice with a sheaf of straw and setting it on fire, thus creating the so-called Nero's torch.
122. Stabbing a knife in the back and leaving it in the victim's body.
123. Impaling a baby on a pitchfork and throwing it into the flames of a fire.
124. Cutting skin from the face with razor blades.
125. Driving oak pegs between the ribs.
126. Hanging on barbed wire.
127. Ripping off the skin from the body and pouring ink over the wound and pouring boiling water over it.
128. Stabbing children as many times as the victim was old.
129. Carving the sign of the cross on the forehead in the Latin rite.
130. Hanging children on barbed wire.
131. The use of the so-called Chinese torture, i.e. beating the heels with an iron rod.
132. Hanging the victim on a telephone wire. In the conventional Bandera criminal vocabulary, this meant "making a telephone call."
133. Cutting off the head from the body with a carpenter's saw.
134. Stripping the victim naked and ordering them to dance on the ice and shooting them in the legs, and pushing the wounded into a hole under the ice.
135. Pulling out nails with pliers.
136. Beatings with sticks and wooden batons all over the body.
137. Burning the victim with candle flames.

138. The hands and feet were tied with barbed wire, and a rope with a noose was placed around the neck—as if for hanging. The end of the rope was tied rigidly to the hands tied behind the back, so that the slightest movement of the hands tightened the noose around the neck. When the tortured person lost consciousness, the torturers poured cold water on them.
139. Laying victims in a row face down and killing them with a shot to the heart.
140. Driving several or more nails into the skull of the head.
141. Tearing apart small children by their legs and throwing them into wells.
142. Slitting the mouth with a scythe and inserting a piece of paper with a Ukrainian inscription: "You will have Poland from sea to sea."
143. Hitting an infant's head with a crowbar.
144. Cutting off the leg and arm of a several-year-old child with an axe, and then the head.
145. Murder by the "garrote" method, familiar to medieval inquisitors – using an iron collar tightened around the victim's neck until the cervical vertebrae fractured. Often, the iron collar was replaced by a rope pulled around the neck and secured with a stake. The individual died in horrific torture. The OUN-UPA torturers called this "garrote."
146. Pulling out the victims' kneecaps.
147. Hanging with the help of the so-called walking gallows, which was sometimes performed by a member of the OUN-UPA, who, in addition to a pistol or a machine gun, carried a leather noose which he would suddenly throw around the victim's neck from behind, and then, having pulled it up over his shoulder, he would lift it from the ground and hold it there until the victim expired on his back.
148. Chopping off children's heads.
149. Shooting through both legs, gouging out the eyes, cutting off the hands, ears, lips piece by piece, tearing the heart out of the chest, smashing the head with a rifle butt and cutting it off.
150. Cutting open the belly, wringing the arms, hitting with stakes.
151. Reliving the victim in three parts.
152. Twisting arms and legs, pulling out hair and poking out eyes.
153. Crucifixion of Roman Catholic priests on missionary crosses.
154. Burying someone alive in the ground.
155. Binding with glowing (red-hot) wire.
156. Seating the victim on a hot, so-called coal stove top.
157. Putting splinters under your nails.
158. Cutting and pulling a strip of skin from the lower spine area upwards, by rolling the skin on a stick along the spine, across the neck and head to the forehead.
159. Killing children by banging their heads against the wall.
160. Killing children by banging their heads against a tree.
161. Chopping the victim into three pieces with an axe.
162. Killing with wooden stakes.
163. Cutting crosses on the body along with cutting off the tongue and ears.
164. Tying a stone around the neck with barbed wire and drowning the victim in the river currents.
165. Chopping a few-month-old baby into four pieces with an axe.
166. Carving a cross into the forehead and tearing the body to shreds.
167. Tying spouses together with barbed wire and throwing them alive into a river.
168. Covering the victim with hot slag from a central heating furnace.
169. Father and son nailing to the floor.
170. Laying them on the floor and chopping off their heads one by one.

171. Chopping off the head with an axe through the teeth.
172. Cutting open the belly of pregnant women and removing the fetus.
173. Walling up children alive in the basement of the Carmelite monastery in Wiśniowiec.
174. Skinning the victim alive and pouring boiling water over the open wound.
175. Tying the legs of a girl who had been raped several times to a beam and immersing the victim in a well, head down.
176. Head smashed with a rifle butt.
177. Placing small children on sharpened fence pickets.
178. Throwing a tied victim with a stone tied around his neck into a hole dug out of peat, where he drowned.
179. Tying victims to posts by the neck with barbed wire, where they suffered and died of bleeding.
180. Tying victims to horses' tails and dragging them along the road for several, or sometimes even a dozen or so kilometers until they die.
181. The victim is dismembered and his remains are scattered on the road.
182. Stomping on a baby's head, tearing off its arms and legs and pinning on it an inscription in Ukrainian: "Polish Eagle".
183. Murdering victims using various tools.
184. Tying victims with barbed wire and throwing them into wells.
185. Chopping off the head on a tree trunk with an axe and lifting it up, showing it to other executioners.
186. Slitting the victim's neck and cutting his chest with a knife.
187. Killing a child with a knife and then smashing its head with an axe.
188. Slitting open the belly of a pregnant woman and cutting out a strip of skin on her back.
189. Raping a young girl for three days and throwing her body into a dry deep well in the forest.
190. Gouging out the eyes, cutting off the tongue, arms and legs and propping the body against the door of the house.
191. Binding with barbed wire and throwing victims into the flames of the fire.
192. Sawing off heads.
193. Killing with poles.
194. Burying adults and children alive.
195. Murdering with pitchforks and axes.
196. Tossing small children on forks.
197. Gang raping of women to death and practicing necrophilia.
198. The victim is tied to the door and the feasting UPA members alternately cut out strips of skin and burn them with firebrands until they die.
199. Tying the victim to a horse-drawn carriage and dragging him along the ground, then burning him in a barn.
200. Stabbing with a pitchfork until you lose your life.
201. Killing by crushing the victim with an oak base.
202. Driving an iron rod into the open mouth and finishing it off with the butt of a rifle.
203. Hitting the head with an axe head.
204. Tearing apart children tied by their hands to a tree.
205. Killing children with a poisonous substance, forcibly administered for inhalation. (A joint German-Ukrainian-chauvinist crime)

206. Tying victims with barbed wire, beating, mocking and ridiculing them, before drowning them in the river.
207. Painting Easter eggs with Polish blood on Good Friday in 1943.
208. Tying to trees and setting fire to or removing various body parts.
209. Roasting victims with the heat of burning buildings.
210. Depriving people of life by throwing bottles of flammable liquid and burning torches into basements.
211. Stabbing the victim to death with sheep shears.
212. Tying a wire loop around the neck and pulling it behind the horse.
213. Throwing living victims into wells and thus drowning them.
214. Burying victims in the ground up to half their torso and pulling off the skin with strips until they are killed.
215. Forcing the drinking of tar and abusing the victims until they die.
216. Sadistic murder with axes of victims whose hands were tied behind their backs with wire.
217. Strangling minor children with their hands.
218. Burning a swastika on the cheek – a symbol of the violence and barbarity of the German fascists – then tying up the victim and drowning him in the so-called excavation pit.
219. Cutting out the navel and pulling out the intestines that were used to wrap the tree.
220. Ripping open the belly of a pregnant woman, removing the fetus and impaling it on a stake.
221. Gouging out the eyes and making a so-called "tie" out of the tongue.
222. Nailing a woman to a door, cutting off her breasts and ripping out her entrails.
223. Nailing a child to a table by the tongue.
224. Strangling a child with a belt.
225. Killing by blows to the head with a rifle butt.
226. Nailing the victim to the ground with a stake through the abdomen.
227. Carrying around the village – for public viewing – the bodies of small children impaled on pitchforks.
228. Cutting off the breasts of a mother and her seventeen-year-old daughter, then, with the blood from their bodies, writing on the wall of their apartment in Ukrainian: "Death to the Poles!"
229. Naked victims were tied by their hands to a sleigh with barbed wire and dragged through the village, finally hacked to death with axes and thrown into a well.
230. Tying the victim to a horse with his hands bound with barbed wire and dragging him, beating him and stabbing him with a bayonet until he dies.
231. Tormenting victims by beating them with rods and stones.
232. Slow chopping – first the arms, then the legs, so that, according to the wishes of Ukrainian chauvinists: "The Polish mug would suffer longer."
233. Nailing the victim to the barn wall and putting vinegar in his mouth every half hour or so.
234. Abusing and raping a group of girls and women until they descended and threw their bodies into the school toilet.
235. Abuse and throwing adults alive into deep wells.
236. Beating until unconsciousness and alternately pouring cold water on the victim, torturing him and throwing him out into the snow and frost.
237. Killing with a pitchfork and then cutting the body into pieces.
238. Hanging children on kitchen hooks.

239. Trampling on the wounded person and finishing him off with a blow to the back of the head.
240. Killing those lying face down with shots to the back of the head and finishing off the wounded with bayonet blows
241. Murder by blow to the back of the head with an axe or large wooden clubs.
242. Killing by hitting the back of the head with a special hammer – a tool for killing domestic animals with a triangle shape at the base.
243. Burning the victim alive in a haystack, then having fun: playing music, singing and dancing.
244. Driving a nail into the forehead and leaving a note in Ukrainian with the following content: "He fed me with bread, and I killed him for it."
245. Chopping off one of the husband's hands and cutting off the wife's breasts, and tying both spouses with barbed wire and hanging them upside down in a deep well.
246. Nailing the victim to the barn by the tongue and driving a stake into the chest.
247. Eyes gouged out, tongue cut out, and tied upside down to a tree with barbed wire.
248. They tied up an old man and performed an appendectomy "for fun," cutting open the victim's abdomen with a penknife. Then, they stuffed the abdomen with moss and sewed it shut with string. They also tore out his tongue, beat him with poles, and buried him shallowly in the ground, where they lit a fire.
249. Gagging the mouth with stakes, piercing the head and tightening the neck with strings.
250. Burying babies a few months old alive.
251. Tying a young man to a horse-drawn cart and ordering him to run until he loses his strength while riding.
252. Beating the victim to death with so-called tadpoles at the pond.
253. Burning alive victims driven into barns.
254. Roasting the victim in hot slag.
255. Tormenting the victim to the point of loss of life.
256. Removing the fetus from a pregnant woman and hanging it, along with its entrails, on bushes.
257. Nailing the victim to the boards.
258. Impaling a small child on a bayonet and lifting the victim up, spinning him around.
259. Ripping open young girls' bellies.
260. Throwing the victim into an anthill, after gouging out the eyes and cutting off the arms and legs.
261. Stabbing with a pitchfork.
262. Lighting a fire on the victim's stomach after knocking him to the ground, tying him up, cutting out his tongue, gouging out his eyes, breaking his arms and legs, and wrapping his head in a cloak.
263. Hanging a woman by her feet from a tree, cutting off her breasts, removing her eyes, and pulling out her entrails from her belly.
264. Dragged by the legs, tied to a horse, and then hung from a tree.
265. Cutting off the mother's breast and the child's leg, and writing on the wall in Ukrainian with blood: "Death to the Poles!"
266. Murder, then cutting the body into pieces, sticking forks into them and placing them on a platter.
267. Tying foresters and gamekeepers with wire and throwing them into the flames of a large bonfire, after previously urinating on them, insulting them and verbally humiliating them, with one of the young Ukrainian women relieving herself on them.

268. Burying their victims in a cemetery for dead animals.
269. Tied to a tree, tongue cut out, eyes gouged out and sawn to pieces.
270. Impaling two small children on a long bayonet and laughing that it was a "Polish plane".
271. Putting a two-year-old child on a pitchfork and putting him in the window.
272. Sticking a hoe in a child's stomach.
273. Tying victims with barbed wire and murdering them with knives.
274. Tearing out the mouth of the victim who shouted: Long live Poland!
275. Tied with barbed wire and tortured for two days.
276. Putting a nine-month-old baby alive on a stake and impaling six severed baby heads on the remaining stakes.
277. Impaling children on sharpened stakes and throwing them into wells.
278. Chopping off children's heads on a wood chopping block.
279. Nailing the victim to the window frame.
280. Grandma and two grandchildren tied to an iron bed, doused with gasoline and burned.
281. Roasting the victim alive after stripping him naked, tying him to a tree and lighting a fire underneath him.
282. Piercing the belly with a pitchfork.
283. Impaling children on pitchforks and lifting them up with a Ukrainian cry to the other torturers: "Look! It's a Polish Eagle."
284. Sawing and, to facilitate this process, the co-torturers sitting on the victim's head and legs.
285. Ripping open the belly of a pregnant woman and throwing the unborn child onto a manure heap with the cry in Ukrainian: "Look how the Polish eagle flies."
286. Torture – torturing the victim in installments.
287. Chopping off two fingers and cutting off the head.
288. Throwing the wounded into a pit of lime.
289. Massacre of the face with an axe and chopping off the arms and legs.
290. Tying a girl to a tree and raping her, then inserting a red-hot iron into her vagina.
291. Nailing a mother and children to a wall with a Ukrainian inscription: "Polish eagles".
292. Throwing victims alive into a pit and covering them with sand.
293. Torturing the victim in front of his wife and children until he died.
294. Putting the victim in a barrel and beating him with sticks until he dies.
295. Chopping off pieces of the feet, hands, then the limbs of the legs, up to the hips, and the hands up to the shoulders, sprinkling salt on them, as well as selecting the eyes, cutting off the noses and ears, tearing off the nails, and cutting open the bellies.
296. Burning eyes with a hot wire.
297. Chopping the head off with slices – piece by piece.
298. Cutting children in half with axes and hatchets – from the head to the bottom of the torso.
299. Sticking a sharpened stick into a woman's groin.
300. Burning alive women and children brought into the building and throwing exploding grenades inside.
301. Sawing the body into four pieces with a saw, poking out the eyes and cutting off the tongue and head, and then sticking the head without eyes and tongue on a pole near a burned-out building.
302. Riding horses at people lying on the ground.

303. Throwing victims alive into a deep well, head down, after having their eyes gouged out with a knife.
304. Nailing the victim to the bed boards.
305. Removing the skin of the hand, i.e. the so-called "degloving", involves cutting the skin of the wrist and rolling it downwards, and sometimes upwards.
306. Cutting the number "105" into the skin of the back, i.e. the number of years of the victim, and salting it.
307. The child's head was crushed and his legs and arms were torn off, leaving a large inscription in Ukrainian: "Polish eagle".
308. Driving men into a brick basement and killing them with exploding grenades.
309. The victims were decapitated with an axe on a chopping block, after their hands and legs had been tied behind their backs with barbed wire. A note attached to the block with a wire inscription in Ukrainian read: "This will be the death of all Poles."
310. A boy was tortured by being tied by the neck to a so-called koromysl (a yoke used to carry two buckets of water on the shoulders) and one arm of the koromysl was lifted upwards, along with the child. When the child began to choke and flail in the air, he was then placed on the ground. This was a demonstration for a group of Ukrainians.
311. Burning a swastika symbol on the cheek with a hot wire.
312. Binding the hands and feet with barbed wire and throwing the victims into the flames of a large bonfire.
313. Gang rape of an adult woman, then inserting a red-hot iron into her crotch.
314. Cutting the forehead across.
315. Nailing children alive crosswise to the wall with nails.
316. Smashing children's heads on farm implements.
317. Hitting the back of the head with a cart hoist.
318. Burying wounded victims who are still alive.
319. Tearing the victim apart by tying one leg to a tree and the other to the bar of a horse-drawn carriage and riding.
320. Pressing the injured person's head into the manure until he suffocates.
321. Nailing the extended tongue to the chin with a nail, after selecting the eyeballs.
322. Sticking the whole axe in the back.
323. Cruel draining of blood from victims and filling of tubs with human blood in the basement of the Dominican monastery in Podkamień.
324. Cutting the sign of the cross on the forehead and cutting off the ears and nose.
325. Stabbing with bayonets and hot iron rods.
326. Pulling out a braid of hair and piercing it with a bayonet.
327. Impaling adult men and women on sharpened stakes buried vertically in the ground.
328. Hammering a nail into the temple.
329. A Roman Catholic priest was tied to a tree, sawed in half, and then a crown woven from barbed wire was placed on his head. The victim served as a target for the girls.
330. Crucifixion on fences – fences by nailing the hands and feet.
331. Gang rape of women and then subjecting them to torture such as cutting out their tongues, cutting off their breasts, and tearing off strips of skin.
332. Tied by the legs with barbed wire, strapped to a horse and dragged at a gallop over rocky boulders.
333. Hanging from a tree by both hands and setting the lower limbs on fire with flames from a bonfire lit under the tree.

334. Burning fingers and hands with candle flames until unconscious, then tying up and shooting.
335. Beating with a chain and a spiked club all over the body of the victim lying on a bench, with breaks for pouring cold water on him to restore consciousness, and then hanging him on a pole.
336. The legs and arms were tied with barbed wire and the victims were subjected to sophisticated torture for several days, and those still alive were finished off with axes.
337. Raping a seventeen-year-old girl in front of her parents and then murdering them all.
338. Hanging a deep well on a "crane".
339. Placing the victim on a hot coal stove top and placing a harrow on it, on which the victim was walked.
340. Stabbing under each rib with a knife, and when the victim was dying, cold water from a bucket was poured over him to regain consciousness and the stabbing was repeated.
341. Throwing living victims into a toilet cesspool and beating them on the head with an iron tool and pushing them into the depths of the cesspool.
342. Hanging someone under their arms on a tree in the forest and burning a branch of brush under the victim.
343. Tying hands with wire and inflicting stab wounds all over the body.
344. Scalping – the removal of skin from the head and face – including selecting the eyes, cutting off the ears, cutting the larynx and pulling the tongue out through it.
345. Cutting off the genitals, gouging out the eyes and puncturing the entire body with thin needles.
346. Chopping an eight-month-old baby into four pieces.
347. Stripping the victim naked, tying them up with barbed wire and pushing them into an ice hole under the river ice.
348. Pinning a several-month-old child to a table with a bayonet and putting a piece of uneaten pickled cucumber into its mouth.
349. Strangling with a rope around the neck and killing with a knife blow to the heart.
350. Ripping the pulsating hearts of Roman Catholic priests from their chests, and sometimes presenting them to viewers and counting down the time of their agony on a clock.
351. Strangulation with barbed wire.
352. Disboweling children and hanging their intestines on the wall in some irregular manner, along with a note hanging on a nail with an inscription in Ukrainian: "Poland from sea to sea!"
353. Nailing children to the wall with their arms spread.
354. Breaking the joints of children's arms and legs and nailing a dead child to a table - in front of adults.
355. Deprivation of life by twenty-two or more knife blows.
356. Attaching the body to the backrest and throwing knives at it.
357. Binding – handcuffing with barbed wire.
358. Inflicting fatal blows with a shovel.
359. Nailing hands to the threshold of the apartment.
360. Pummeling children through and through with wheels.
361. Dragging the body along the ground by the legs tied with a rope.
362. Nailing small children around a thick roadside tree, thus creating so-called "wreaths."